

Renewed Petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b)

Applicant: Shin-Jen Shaio

Application No. : 10/554,315

Filed Date: 10/24/2005

Attorney Docket

Sherry D. Brinkley

Petitions Examiner

Office of Petitions

Confirmation No. : None

To the Commissioner of Patents:

The applicant was notified in referring to the OFFICE OF PETITIONS concerning this application dated on MAR. 09 2011 in which the petition filed on December 17, 2010 to revive the above-identified application under unavoidable provisions of 37 CFR 1.137(a) was DISMISSED. The applicant also showed a new way of "ALTERNATIVE VENUE". That this is not a final agency action within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 704, petitioner is strongly encouraged to consider filing this petition stating that the delay was unintentional under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.137(b), was unintentional.

In so far the applicant has made effort to revive the application by unavoidably reason but still DISMISSED. Thanks for the encouragement by Petitions Examiner, the applicant immediately submits this petition and Petition for revival of an application for patent abandoned unintentionally under 37 CFR 1.137(b) by fax first. Because today is weekend, the original documents will be submitted with fee on Mar. 21, 2011 by Air Mail, when the bank will open and could draw a check.

The applicant wishes courteously that The Petitions Examiner would allow this application revival.

Yours faithfully,

Shin-Jen Shaio

Mar. 19, 2011

Attachments:

- 1). Petition for revival of an application for patent abandoned unintentionally under 37 CFR 1.137(b)
- 2). A check for US$810 for petition fee.